“In NSW mines, no person is to be exposed to airborne dust that exceeds exposure standards.”

The Hon. George Souris AM
Chair of the NSW Mine Safety Advisory Council

A new exposure standard for respirable coal dust of 1.5 mg/m³ will be introduced from 1 February 2021.

Stop. Think. Be safe at work.

resourcesregulator.nsw.gov.au