

Black Lung Disease

An ongoing focus in NSW

“It’s our position that all dust diseases are preventable. Understand the risks associated with dust and put in place controls to manage them.”

Garvin Burns

Chief Inspector of Mines, NSW Resources Regulator

A new exposure standard for respirable coal dust of 1.5 mg/m³ will be introduced from 1 February 2021.

Stop. Think. Be safe at work.

resourcesregulator.nsw.gov.au