WORK HEALTH AND SAFETY (MINES AND PETROLEUM SITES) REGULATION 2014

NOTICE

Tier-2 quarry manager practising certificate maintenance of competence requirements 2020

I, GARVIN BURNS, Chief Inspector, with the delegated authority of the Secretary, Regional NSW, pursuant to clause 143 of the Work Health and Safety (Mines and Petroleum Sites) Regulation 2014 (the Regulation) make the following notice.

Dated this 8th day of September 2020.

Garvin Burns
Chief Inspector of Mines
Regional NSW

1. Name of notice

This notice is the Tier-2 quarry manager practising certificate maintenance of competence requirements 2020.

2. Commencement

This notice commences on the date it is published in the NSW Government Gazette and has effect until it is revoked.

3. Interpretation

In this notice:

conditions mean the conditions specified at item 4 below in accordance with clause 143 of the Regulation.

formal learning means organised and structured learning with specific learning objectives as referred to Table 2 of Schedule 1 and meets the criteria in schedule 1.

holder means a person who holds a Tier-2 Quarry Manager practising certificate.

informal learning means learning as a by-product of experience in participating or carrying out an activity as referred to in Table 2 of Schedule 1.

learning hours means the number of hours spent undertaking formal, non-formal or informal learning.

quarry manager practising certificate means a certificate issued by the regulator enabling a person to exercise the statutory function of quarry manager as specified in clause 31 of schedule 3 of the Work Health and Safety (Mines and Petroleum Sites) Regulation 2014.

recognised learning types mean the types of learning specified at item 5.

risk profile tool means the assessment tool used by the regulator to assess the hazards and complexity of a mine.

the Regulation means the Work Health and Safety (Mines and Petroleum Sites) Regulation 2014.

Tier-2 quarry means a mine determined by the regulator using the risk profile tool to be a tier-2 quarry.

Tier-2 Quarry Manager means a person exercising the statutory function of quarry manager at a Tier-2 quarry by holding a practising certificate issued by the regulator.

Terms used in this notice have the same meaning as in the Work Health and Safety Act 2011, Work Health and Safety Regulation 2017, Work Health and Safety (Mines and Petroleum Sites) Act 2013 and the Work Health and Safety (Mines and Petroleum Sites) Regulation 2014.

Explanatory note: Holders of practising certificates issued under the Work Health and Safety (Mines and Petroleum Sites) Regulation 2014 with a condition restricting them to practise at a mine operator’s mine locations (for mines other than underground mines or coal mines) that are specified on the practising certificate are not required to comply with the requirements in this notice.

4. Conditions

The conditions specified in Schedule 1 below are the conditions which apply to a Tier-2 quarry manager practicing certificate which contains a maintenance of competence condition that requires compliance with requirements published by the regulator in the NSW Government Gazette.

Schedule 1

Criteria for types of learning

Formal training courses

In order to be eligible to claim formal learning hours from undertaking a formal training course, the holder must obtain from the training provider evidence that the course meets the following criteria:

- The course content, with or without learning objectives are documented, current and relevant to the holder's statutory function,
- The length of the course, including start and finish times are documented.
- The person(s) delivering or designing the course (including face to face, online or correspondence courses) has appropriate technical and/or educational ability, experience and qualifications relevant to the course.

The above evidence obtained by the holder should be retained in either in the holder's logbook or in separate documentation.

Tertiary qualifications

Tertiary qualifications refer to any post school qualification recognised under the Australian Qualifications Framework (AQF).

If the holder is completing a tertiary qualification, they can claim study from a course that is relevant to WHS and the statutory function(s) on their practising certificate, such as:

- face to face, electronic or other form of direct interaction between the holder and the training institution
- completing required assessments either individually or as a group that involve studying and application of learning
- required reading of information or attending field excursions for the qualification.
