

TAKE ACTION TO PREVENT DUST DISEASE

safe and responsible mining industry

“The good news is that dust-related lung diseases are entirely preventable. If you take the right steps, you can live a long life and be there for your family.”

Dr Deborah Yates

Respiratory Physician
St Vincent's Hospital, Sydney

Dust - Just because you can't see it,
doesn't mean it's not there.

Visit the dust toolkit for more resources. resourcesregulator.nsw.gov.au

TAKE ACTION TO PREVENT DUST DISEASE

safe and responsible mining industry

Quarry Worker

NSW Quarry

“Concerned about dust control at work? Take action and speak to your supervisor or operations manager to put in place appropriate safety measures.”

DOC20/385266

Dust - Just because you can't see it, doesn't mean it's not there.

Visit the dust toolkit for more resources. resourcesregulator.nsw.gov.au

TAKE ACTION TO PREVENT DUST DISEASE

safe and responsible mining industry

“Mine operators and quarry managers should review their strategy and capacity to manage respirable coal and crystalline silica airborne contaminants to minimise exposure.”

Garvin Burns

Chief Inspector of Mines
NSW Resources Regulator

Resources Regulator

DOC20/385266

Dust - Just because you can't see it,
doesn't mean it's not there.

Visit the dust toolkit for more resources. resourcesregulator.nsw.gov.au

TAKE ACTION TO PREVENT DUST DISEASE

safe and responsible mining industry

“Operators and workers need to understand the health impacts associated with dust and the steps they can take to minimise the risk to protect their health.”

The Hon. George Souris AM

Chair of the NSW Mine Safety
Advisory Council

Dust - Just because you can't see it,
doesn't mean it's not there.

Visit the dust toolkit for more resources. resourcesregulator.nsw.gov.au